EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Roland E. Long, Jr., reg. no. 41,949 on 9 September 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims, claim 9 is amended as follows:

9. (currently amended) A method for simulating an analogue telephone apparatus in a twin cable connected to a data transfer device, characterized in that

- the loop current fed into the twin cable from its other end is amplified by means of a current amplifier arrangement, and
- said current amplifier arrangement is controlled by means of a first current switching device and a second current switching device and an electrical potential of said current amplifier arrangement is made to float in respect of a supply voltage ~~of~~ by a control current in the first current switching device through an impedance of a current path in said first current switching device and by a control current in the second current switching device through an impedance of a current path in said second current switching device ~~make~~.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

3. Regarding Claim 1, US Patent 5,125,027 to Blaszykowski et al. discloses a central office line interface circuit (Figs. 1, 2A) that corresponds to the electric device claimed and connects a local central office that corresponds to the analog data transfer device claimed (column 4, lines 36-38) by means of a multiplexer (Fig. 1, reference 12; column 3, lines 8-16) that corresponds to the control unit claimed to a logic interface (Fig. 1, reference 0; column 3, lines 8-16) that corresponds to the digital transfer device claimed and connects to a terminal (Fig. 1, reference 11; column 3, lines 5-8) that corresponds to the data transfer device claimed with telephone lines (Fig. 1, reference 2; column 2, lines 38-44) that correspond to the twin cable claimed comprising: a current amplifier arrangement (Fig. 2A, reference 20; column 5, line 67-column 6, line 53) that increases current to seize the line (i.e., loops current fed into the cable from its other end) (column 6, lines 1-4, 30-33); an optocoupler (Fig. 2A, reference 70; column 6, lines 1-4) that, with associated components, corresponds to the first current switching device claimed; and an optocoupler (Fig. 2A, reference 74; column 6, lines 30-33) that, with associated components, corresponds to the second current switching device claimed. However, Blaszykowski does not disclose an impedance of a flowing path of the first control current in said first current switching device and an impedance of a flowing path of the second control current in said second current switching device making an electrical potential of said current amplifier arrangement to float in respect of a supply voltage of the electric device. Because the prior art fails to disclose or suggest all elements of the claimed invention, Claim 1 is allowable.

4. Claims 2 through 8 are allowable due to dependence from Claim 1.

Art Unit: 2615

5. Claim 9 is essentially similar to Claim 1 and is allowable for the same reasons.
6. Claim 10 is allowable due to dependence from Claim 9.
7. Claim 11 incorporates matter indicated as allowable in the prior Office action with respect to Claim 2. As such, Claim 11 is allowable for the reasons stated in the prior Office action.
8. Claims 12 through 17 are allowable due to dependence from Claim 11.

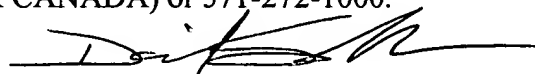

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Daniel Swerdlow whose telephone number is 571-272-7531. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday between 7:30 AM and 5:00 PM.
